

Lions Gate Quilters' Guild

January 2011

From Your President

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Happy New Year to all Quilters - time to get back to the needles and thread - well, as soon as the rain sets in again! I will as soon as I have dug out the sewing room, which seems to become a repository for anything that needs a spare home over the holiday season. Think I'll start by finishing up a couple of UFO's to get myself back in the swing of things and I have to come up with a couple of projects for retreat - that sounds like much more fun!

We had our first executive meeting of the year last night, lots of things in the works this year for programs and workshops. It's an "off" year for the quilt show, but we do need to find a coordinator for the raffle quilt for June of 2012 - anyone interested ????? We also of course have elections coming up - what a great way to give back to the guild, which is an important part of a lot of our lives. You don't need any experience, just some time and willingness to help out. Positions up for grabs are President, Vice-President (one year only), Workshops, Secretary, Membership and one Member-at-Large. We have had a few people come forward - not enough to fill all the positions though, so please consider volunteering to serve on YOUR guild executive.

All the best to all of you for 2011

Carol

Upcoming Workshops

By Joan Herrin, Workshop Coordinator

COMING IN THE SPRING OF 2011

LESSONS FROM THE MASTERS (and mistresses)

with Linda Sharp

CANCELLED

Following discussions with Carol and Linda we have, unfortunately, had to cancel this series of workshops due to low registration numbers. We will, however, endeavour to reschedule these workshops for the fall of 2011. watch for further updates in future newsletters!!

TURNING LEAVES with Bonnie Hwang

Bonnie's love of Modern Art and love of nature has greatly influenced her quilting and can be seen through her incredible use of colour and distinctive designs.

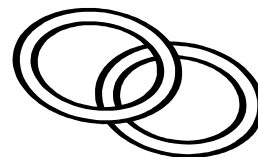

The freehand cut curve technique produces an inimitable freeform leaf design. The offset contrasting background adds a dynamic quality to the wall hanging. Slender stems that separate the coordinating leaf fabrics add an additional challenge taking this quilt from a beginner to an intermediate level.

DATE: Saturday, April 2, 2011
PLACE: St. Agnes Church, 530 East, 12th, North Vancouver
TIME: 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
COST: $50.00 (includes $10.00 pattern fee)

TWO MORE QUILTING TIPS FROM RENATA!

- ☺ Before washing your fabrics, clip the corners. This will cut down on fraying and also give a visual clue as to which of your fabrics have been washed.
- ☺ When ironing your blocks, always iron from the front to prevent puckers. Hold one side up and lower as you ease your iron along.

DOUBLE WEDDING RINGS with Bonnie Hwang

If you expressed a desire (in the September workshop questionnaire) to learn how to do curved seams, here's your chance to learn a new skill.

DATE: Saturday, May 7, 2011
PLACE: St. Agnes Church, 530 East 12th, North Vancouver
TIME: 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
COST: $50.00 (includes $10.00 pattern fee)

Registration for both these workshops will begin at the January guild meeting so bring your cheque book to guarantee a space in these popular workshops.

Workshop Cancellation Policy:

- If a class overfills on the first night of registration, there will be a lottery.
- If a class does not fill on the first night of registration, the workshop committee will decide if the class will go ahead.
- If a class does go ahead all those registered on the first night would be guaranteed a spot. Further registrations would be collected on a first come basis.
- In other words, if you really want to attend a workshop make sure you get your cheque into the workshop committee in person, by mail or with a friend by the first night of registration.

If you must withdraw from a workshop for which you have registered, please remember that YOU are responsible for filing your space before your monies will be refunded.

From your Programme Committee

The November Sewing Room Sale was well - attended by sellers, but lacked buyers. There were bargains to be had, but it appears that most quilters have a stash of their own of "...why did I buy this???" fabric and are more interested in sewing up what they have rather than acquiring more.

Perhaps it is a sign of the times that many quilters are working on diminishing their stash rather than adding to it. On this note, it has been decided that we need to give our Annual November Sewing Room Sale a rest and replace the event with something different. Perhaps someone can come up with some other idea that gives members an opportunity to find new homes for some of their "No longer loved fabric". (This is not an invitation to dump your fabric on Community Quilts!!!) Some of the Seniors homes have craft groups that may have a use for good quality, clean, folded fabric.

We have an approved budget of $1500.00 for Programme activities at meetings. If anyone has knowledge of a good presenter, or would like to do a presentation, please don't hesitate to let us know.

At the January meeting we will have a short presentation from Adair Patterson. She will share with you an opportunity to participate in a Challenge with great prizes to make banners in support of the Relay for Life.

Also at the January meeting we will have an opportunity to view an entertaining and useful machine quilting presentation from Ricky Tims, via a DVD. There is a short interactive segment so you are encouraged to have a notebook and pen with you. Hopefully this DVD and others will soon be available for your complete viewing through our library.

There was great participation in the November Block of the Month. Thanks to everyone who participated and congratulations to the winner. Thanks also to the winner of the October BOM who brought a project completed with her October winnings to the November meeting. Now there's pressure!!!

Directions for the January block of the month will be e - mailed separately on January 15th. Plan now to participate by gathering blue and white fabrics!

COMMUNITY QUILTS

Happy New year!

Just a reminder to put a notice on your calendar that the Community Quilts Workshop is on March 4th and 5th with a set up day on March 3rd for those who wish to help. It will be held in St Andrews and St Stephens where we hold our meetings.

If you would like to sign up to volunteer please call me at 604 985 8134.

We also had wonderful thanks from a family and a society about our quilts as follows.

"Our identical twin boys were born at Lions Gate Hospital four weeks premature. The special care nursery nurses kindly gave us two quilts on your behalf. We are so grateful for your generosity."

- DEVLIN FAMILY, BURNABY

"On behalf of Lookout Emergency Aid Society and those that we serve, thank you so very much for your generous gift of quilts for the Tenants at the North Shore Shelter and Tenancy! Your quilts were very much appreciated by the men and women that we serve. We are thrilled with the support of your organization, and your people!"

People are homeless for a variety of reasons including mental illness, alcoholism, addiction, mental or physical handicaps, or an inability to cope. Many times people suffer from more than one diagnosis. Many come to us with little or nothing and have nowhere else to turn."

Election time!!

It's that time again when we must start thinking about elections which are coming up in February 2011. The Positions that will be open are listed below (for more detailed description of each position, please refer to your LGQG By-Laws).

President: This person is responsible for managing the Guild. The President prepares agendas for and presides at Directors' and General meetings, receives communications from members and the public, and prepares a report for each issue of the newsletter.

Vice-President: This person assumes the duties of the President in her/his absence. Note – this will be a one year term this time only.

Secretary: This person is responsible for keeping minutes of all meetings. She/he also prepares correspondence and notices according to the Directors' instructions.

Membership Coordinator: This person collects dues, provides information to new members and maintains the membership list.

Workshop Coordinator: This person arranges teachers, locations, and times for workshops, announces workshops to members, facilitates sign-up and collects fees. turns over fees and expense vouchers, along with a reconciliation of same, to Treasurer. provides the teacher with an enrolment list, and maintains a waiting list for over-subscribed workshops.

Member-At-Large: The two Members-at-large (one is elected each year) provide another communication channel to the executive. Responsibilities include greeting people at the door for meetings and coordinating "show and tell"

Please consider letting your name stand for one of these positions.

The nominating Committee will be phoning members over the next month --if you already know the position you would like to run for, or if you have a friend you would like to nominate (with her/his permission of course), please call Karen or Suzan.

Membership Report

by Katie Schiebler, Membership Coordinator

Happy New Year to all 181 members of the guild! This month we have attached the registration form to renew your membership for 2011. These are your options for handing in your registration renewal form;

1> Print out the form, fill it in, and drop it off to membership (with payment) at the January meeting before the meeting or during the break.

2> Print out the form, fill it in, plop it in an envelope (with payment, preferably a cheque), and snail mail it

Handing in your registration form early enables me to prepare and organize the cards before the February meeting so that we can distribute the cards faster with less confusion, but we will of course be accepting renewals in February and forthcoming months as well. Don't let your membership lapse or you could miss out on discounts at some quilt fabric shops, and the ability to take books out of our library! This year's membership renewal fee is only $45. Happy quilting!

MEMBERS AT LARGE

The 50/50 draw winner at our November was Barb Alizadeh.

Do you know a member who is ill or otherwise needs cheering up? If so, please give the information to Members-at-Large, Suzan Gauthier-Kolker or Karen Munro (or any other executive member) to have a card sent from the Guild.

An email was sent earlier this month with respect to the elections coming in February. Several people have stepped forward and volunteered for the remaining positions (Secretary, Workshops, Membership, Member at Large), but there is room for more nominees. Check out the positions described on Page 7.

Please get involved and volunteer! Without an Executive, our Guild cannot exist. Come see Karen or Suzan at the 50/50 table at the November meeting. Thank you!
