

Lions Gate Quilters' Guild

May 2009

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

I came across this on the web - claiming to be by Juanita K. Bard (with apologies of course!)

To Stash or not to Stash....is that the question?

Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous misorganization
Or to take arms against a sea of clutter
And by opposing end it? To organize?
To give away? To sew not more?
Nay...To sew I must perchance a new patchwork
Or try a new paper piece pattern
For who can bear the whips and scorns of
The ever present 1/2 price sale ads
That makes a calamity of our credit cards..
To file or not to file my patterns
To group by pastels and darks
And by organization to say we end
The heartache of rummaging around
For just that right piece of fabric
That our sewing is heir to, 'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wish'd..to organize,
To conceal in boxes...and boxes galore
In plastic containers that overflow on the floor
To organize, perchance to achieve it....ay, there's the rub;
For in that great organization of fabric what dreams
may come
When we have shuffled off this mortal unorganization
Must give us pause there's the respect

Guild meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of the month at:

St Andrews and St Stephens corner of 27th St and Chesterfield

Next Guild meeting: May 26 7:30pm
Next Executive meeting: June 1 7:15pm

That makes calamity of so organized a sewing room;

For who can bear to whittle down her Stash...

The pangs of that separation of fabric

To grunt and sweat under the strain

Of not seeing forever the beloved Stash...

But that the dread of something after death,
The undiscover'd boxes...from whose boundary

No traveler returns, puzzles the will

And make us rather think we have

To give to others that we know not of?

Thus conscience does make swappers of us all;

And thus the native hue of resolution

Gives way to the pale thought and enterprises

Of that great moment with this regard

To our current Stash...Organize...give away!!!!

And lose the name of clutter... Soft you now!

Oh, fair quilters... in they orisons

Be all my Stash remember'd.....

Seminar class registrations are now open to the general public and other guilds – it's going to be a great event, so let's get those classes filled!!!

See you on the 26th, when our speaker will be Gail Hunt - don't forget COPS day on Saturday May 23 and DROP-IN day on Tuesday May 26th. Also - our own Anni Hunt has a solo show at the Craft Council of BC Gallery on Granville Island - "Containment" runs until June 14!

PROGRAM

Dianne Ritter – Program Coordinator

Programs

Fabulous show and Tell last meeting! During the 35 minutes show and tell we saw some fabulous quilts including a project that was 30 years in the making – a newly completed antique! To date one third of the registered COP/UFO projects have been completed and shown to the guild. Amazing. Just a reminder that in order to be entered in the draw for the $ you have to complete at least one of your registered projects and SHOW it to the guild during show and tell at the May or June meeting.

Gail Hunt will be presenting her lecture “A Space for Sewing” and a small trunk show at the May meeting.

The June meeting promises to be an exciting one. Pippa Moore will be presenting a slide show about her time in Africa, our last show and tell of the COP/UFO challenge will take place, we will have our June social with time to chat and indulge in some goodies, and at the end of it all we will draw for the winners of the cash in the COP/UFO challenge. Three people are going to go home very happy! You might be one of them!

I'm busy working out plans for next fall and would welcome any suggestions for speakers that you might have. Please don't hesitate to e-mail me your ideas at programs@lionsgatequiltersguild.com .

Dianne

Journal for June

So far we have focused on some of the elements of design for our Journal quilts. This month I thought we would venture into the world of themes or ideas. So...the theme for June is.....My Favourite Place To Be In The World. Using whatever methods you prefer create a journal quilt depicting your very favourite place to spend time. This could a favourite from the present or the past. Remember to be curious and have fun!

Retreat Song

(Sing to the tune of “A Few Of My Favorite Things”)

Pfaffs and Janome, Bernina and Husky
Rulers and cutters and pins that aren't rusty
Tension that's even and geese with their wings
These are a few of my favorite things.

Walking feet, needles and threads of all colors
Patterns and fabrics an hot tea with crullers
Quarter inch seams that I sew while I sing
These are a few of my favorite things.

When the thread breaks, when the blade's nicked,
when my points look sad
I simply remember my favorite things and then I don't feel so bad.

Trips to the US and stops at the border
Who knew that I would become such a hoarder
Stashes get bigger and credit cards sing
These are a few of my favorite things.

Books and design walls, scissors and cotton
Applique, ditch stitch and piecing that's spot on
Free motion quilting that goes round in rings
These are a few of my favorite things.

When the day's done, and my brain's numb, and I'm going mad
I may be off kilter but I am a quilter, and so I don't feel so bad.

Written by Lana K.

This was given to me at the last guild meeting and I cannot for the life of me remember who it was! Please email me and let me know so that I can let everyone know who you were. It is a great fun song, let's sing it at the next retreat!

Remember I'm always open to new and fun items for the newsletter, keep them coming!

Name Tags - Remember to bring your name tag with you. If you forget it I will have sticky tags for a donation of 25 cents - so remember to bring your own.

LIBRARY*Nancy Sunderland— Librarian

Everyone agreed that the new set-up for the library books worked out well. We pulled the tables out from the wall and added another row to make lots of room for the books and for people to walk around the tables. This allowed room to put quilts up on the back wall for everyone to enjoy.

I hope you liked the new books and DVDs that I chose last month. Please let us know what you think. It is your input helps us to determine what to bring into the library.

We are experimenting with the DVDs and if you like them we will likely get some more. Borrowing DVDs works just the same as books. The fee for overdue DVDs and books is $1.00/month. If the books or DVDs are lost, you will be asked for the replacement cost.

Keep reading and enjoy

Nancy

QUILTER FOR HIRE

I am looking for someone in the Vancouver area to make custom quilts for my daughter and son. I would like two twin size quilts, timeframe is flexible. I would like one with raindrops on it (in blue colors) and one with leaves on it (in green colors). I am open to the quilter's creativity and have a flexible budget. Any help would be wonderful! I tried local quilt shops but can only find people who are willing to sew something I have already pieced but I am looking for someone who can do this start to finish, I have no crafty bones in my body!
