

Lions Gate Quilters' Guild

June 2010

From Your President:

As I write this, the show is a week away, but as you read it, it will be over. I'm sure it will be/was a great one! We are going to celebrate at the June meeting social - which will feature our ribbon winners, unshown "C" quilts, and the mystery quilts!

Krista has been tabulating the results of the Fall Seminar Survey - the general trend is towards a lower key, more social weekend. Space, as always, is an issue but we'll see what we can do - and of course will need a committee to plan and look after it - this is your cue to help out! We'll be looking for volunteers of course!

Hope the show inspired you to try something new - Carol

PS - Blue Mountain Quilt Guild will be selling tickets at the June meeting for the raffle quilt for their fall show.

Carol

*Last meeting before summer break, Tuesday, June 22nd — see Page 3 for details from our Program Committee ****

LIBRARY

Our first few months have been a lot of fun. We have learned many things and thoroughly enjoyed meeting everyone. It has been an easy transition because of all the help and support we have had from the Guild members especially Nancy Sunderland, thank you again.

Please remember to bring in all your books, DVD's and stencils that you have taken out as we need to do an inventory over the summer. When we do this we will be updating the library and taking the books that have not been borrowed over the last few years and put them up for sale at our November meeting.

Over the summer if you come across any books or items that you feel would be of interest to the Guild please email us with the information so we can look into purchasing new material.

Have a great summer and see you in September.

Upcoming Workshops

By Joan Herrin, Workshop Coordinator

COMING IN THE FALL OF 2010

TUMBLING MAPLE LEAVES

with Dianne Stevenson

CONGRATULATIONS to DIANNE STEVENSON

who is this year's CQA Teacher of the Year!! This award is truly well deserved and we are so lucky to have her teaching for us this fall. Currently, this course is full with a waiting list and we are hoping to book Dianne in the near future so we can offer this popular course again. Keep checking this space for further updates.

FUJI WA

with Helen Fujiki

HELEN FUJIKI is from Toronto and will be passing through Vancouver en route to Japan but will be stopping long enough to present, at our October Guild meeting, a one hour movie of her textile tour of Japan and the Tokyo Quilt Show. Helen's presentation is titled "Japan Through the Eye of a Quilter".

Helen works with Japanese fabrics and includes many panel fabrics in her designs. We are offering two one-day workshops called 'Fuji Wa'. Helen says that 'Fuji Wa' is "my style of combining patchwork, panels, and applique (Broderie Perse and conventional machine and hand applique) to create Asian inspired hangings. ... Every project is individual".

Date: Tuesday, October 26, 2010

Place: St. Andrew's and St. Stephen's Church, corner of 27th and Chesterfield, North Vancouver

Time: 9:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Cost: $60.00

Date: Wednesday, October 27, 2010

Place: St. Agnes Church, 530 East 12th, North Vancouver

Time: 9:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Cost: $60.00

Registration will continue at the June meeting. Please bring your cheque book as the registration fee is due upon sign-up and is non-refundable. Cheques need to be postdated to October 20th.

Check out her website

CHRISTMAS TREE SKIRT

with Krista Hennebury

Has your Christmas tree skirt been around since you decorated your first Christmas tree, with such pride, all those years ago?

Is your tree skirt beginning to look tired and worn? Are you ready for an update?

Here's your chance to get a start on a new one just in time to place it around the base of this year's Christmas tree!!

Come and join your fellow quilters and Krista on Saturday, November 20th as she shares a new tree skirt pattern with us.

Registration will begin at the September meeting. Please check your calendar so your won't miss out on this class and bring your cheque book in order to register for this course.

Workshop Cancellation Policy

- ☛ If a class overfills on the first night of registration, there will be a lottery.
- ☛ If a class does not fill on the first night of registration, the workshop committee will decide if the class will go ahead.
- ☛ If a class does go ahead all those registered on the first night would be guaranteed a spot. Further registrations would be collected on a first come basis.
- ☛ In other words, if you really want to attend a workshop make sure you get your cheque into the workshop committee in person, by mail or with a friend by the first night of registration.

From your Program Committee:

Our June Meeting will feature:

– Tea Party Social –

Coffee, Tea and Goodies will be provided....

As well as a special Show and Tell!

Please remember to bring:

- Your favorite tea cup!
- Fancy hat should you have one...

Show and Tell will include:

- Mystery quilts
- Ribbon winners from the Quilt show
- Special showing of any 'C' quilts that were not used in the show.

Congratulations and a HUGE round of applause to our Album of Quilts 2010 committee members and all volunteers. Your hard work and tireless commitment made this year's show simply spectacular.

Quilt show Report

Thank you seems like an inadequate way to express my appreciation for your outstanding level of participation in our show. I have received so many comments about the congenial atmosphere, the beautiful quilts, the fabulous merchant mall, the delicious food in our tea room and especially the friendly disposition of our members.

I will give a full report at our June meeting but I wanted to let you know now that in every way possible our show was a huge success and everyone who participated deserves a big pat on the back.

Well done everyone!

Raffle Quilts 2010

Who won?

First Raffle Draw Winner is Margaret Grigg who lives in Coquitlam and is a friend of guild member Anne Read. She chose the Blooming Nine Patch because she likes the colours for her home. She is not a quilter herself but loves quilts and is thrilled with her win.

Second Raffle Draw Winner is Hart Banack who lives in Vancouver and is a friend of guild member Karen Marshall. He won the Diamond Quilt and is extremely surprised and happy. He is the father of two young girls, so this is a beautiful quilt for this family.

Thanks to everyone who helped make the quilts and sell the tickets both before and during the show. We did very well with ticket sales and the feedback on the quilts was wonderful. Many thanks to everyone!

From your editor

Several years ago I was given a tiny little book of quotations for quilters—. Here are two excerpts that were taken from AUNT JANE OF KENTUCKY", by ELIZA CALVERT HALL. I hope you enjoy:

"You can give the same kind o' pieces to two persons, and one'll make a "nine-patch" and one'll make a "wild goose chase", and there'll be two quilts made out o' the same kind o' pieces, and jest as different as they can be. And that is jest the way with livin'. The Lord sends us the pieces, but we can cut 'em out and put 'em together pretty much to suit ourselves, and there's a heap more in the cutting' out and the sewin' than there is in the caliker (calico)"

And

"I've had a heap o' comfort all my life makin' quilts, and now in my old age I wouldn't take a fortune for 'em ... You see, some folks has albums to put folks' pictures in to remember 'em by, and some folks has a book and writes down the things that happen every day so they won't forgit 'em, but, honey, these quilts is my albums and my di'ries, and whenever the weather's bad and I can't git out to see folks, I jest spread out my quilts and look at 'em and study over 'em, and it's jest like goin' back fifty or sixty years and livin' my life over agin.

Thanks to "Quilting, Quotations Celebrating an American Legacy", compiled by Joyce S. Steward.
