

Lions Gate Quilters' Guild

October 2010

From Your President:

Hopefully the weather is still as wonderful as today by the time you are reading this! Great meeting in September everyone - I really enjoyed Bonnie Hwang's trunk show. It's always so interesting to see other people's work and to hear about their path from when they started quilting to where they are today. Fantastic show and tell - nothing like a June quilt show to get everyone going over the summer obviously! All the premie quilt kits were scooped up - how many do you think we'll get to see in show and tell this month? - along with several community quilt kits. So many in our guild do so much work for the guild and the community - kudos and thanks to all of you.

This Month's COPS* Day

WHEN: Sat. October 23, 2010

WHERE: St. Catherine's

COST: $10.00 plus a plate of sweets or savouries.

C.O.P.S. (Creative Ongoing Process Session):
Everyone welcome... new members, long-time members, friends, everyone!

We have a new recipient for the homeless pillows - the Outreach Center right here on the North Shore. They will be using them for Christmas presents and to give to people as they move out of the transitional beds and off on their own. Does anyone know someone who might be able to donate upholstery or other heavier weight fabric for these? I know I'm starting to run out of the more durable stuff. Perhaps someone has a contact in the upholstery business???

I'm looking forward to my class with Helen Fujiki, and to her presentation at the October meeting. This will be an AV presentation plus trunk show - she'll be talking about current Japanese quilt artists and showing slides of some of their work and highlights from the 2008 Tokyo International Great Quilt Show - the largest in the world. She'll talk about the five original quilt masters who fostered the growth of quilting in Japan and assures us that "at the very least" we'll gain some knowledge of Japan and Japanese quilting! We'll be having a special draw instead of the 50/50 as well - we'll be raffling one of Helen's "manhole cover" quilts - tickets are 3 for $5 and proceeds will go towards bringing her here to talk to us!

Moving along to the subject of draws - your exec has decided that we will limit the "official" selling of raffle tickets at guild meetings to quilts for other guild's shows (and our 50/50 or a substitute). If anyone has a quilt they are raffling for a good cause, they can advertise in the newsletter (using their one free business card sized ad per year or paying for more), show the quilt at show and tell, and informally sell tickets to anyone who is interested in buying them, but will not be given a table or wall space. The rationale behind this is to still let our members raise money for other causes, but in a way that we (as an executive and a guild) do not have to decide what is or is not a cause "worthy" of official support.

See you all on October 26! -

Carol

OH JOYFUL CHRISTMAS TREE SKIRT

with Krista Hennebury

Spruce up your evergreen this holiday season with a new dress! This lovely scalloped tree skirt is simple to construct with scrappy strips in bright, modern prints, or equally beautiful in traditional Christmas greens and reds. Choose a white background to accent your brights, or perhaps a dark snowflake print for a night-time scene.

There are also many embellishment opportunities for the pieced treetops; add ribbon bows, button stars or perhaps appliquéd felt snowflakes! Krista will have a sample of her tree skirt at the October meeting.

Participants are free to swap strips at the start of class to build a variety of fabrics for their project, or just come along with their own fabrics ready to go. You'll learn tips for pressing long skinny strips accurately and how to apply a bias binding to those scalloped edges. Some pre-cutting is required so that we can maximize class time and get our tree skirts completely pieced! It's a Christmas project, so you know there's gonna be cookies!!

*C.O.P.S. (Creative Ongoing Process Session): Everyone is welcome.

From your Programme Committee

A HUGE "Thank-you" goes out to everyone who participated in the Preemie Quilt endeavour at our September meeting. We were thrilled with your enthusiasm! More quilt kits will come available at the November meeting. You may return the completed quilts at any time to the Programme table. Remember that the quilts need to be quilted and not tied.

I hope you enjoyed the Bonnie Hwang presentation and are looking forward to her classes in the New Year. Watch for sign-up through Workshops...I am sure she will be a wonderful teacher!

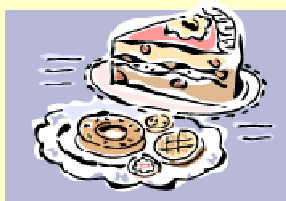

Helen Fujiki will be the presenter at the October meeting...she too will be teaching classes as follow-up to her evening video tour of Japanese quilt artists and trunk show.

The Sewing Room Sale is coming up at the November meeting. This is a great opportunity to cull your sewing room of all the patterns, books, magazines and fabric bits that you no longer use/will never use/why did I buy this? etc.! You may also use this opportunity to sell any sewing room related articles, crafts or goods.

You must book a table (no fee) prior to the evening by e-mailing Elaine Thody (ethody@shaw.ca). If you don't think you have enough for your own table, think about sharing with one or two other guild members...the more, the merrier. If you have anything that you don't want to sell you may want to donate it to the "Free" table....But please be prepared to take your items home with you if they are not grabbed up.

Reminder to all the November Birthday Members to bring a plate of goodies for the tea table on meeting night. This will be an on-going addition to our meetings, so any December, July and August babies are welcome to bring your birthday celebration goodies any month you choose!

CQA Update from Coastal Rep Barb Round

As CQA Rep I have recently had several inquiries about Copyright for Quilters, such as:

- Do you need permission to use someone's photograph as the basis of a design for your quilt?
 - Can someone publish a photo of your original quilt without your permission?
 - Can you take pictures at a Quilt Show? Can you post those pictures in your own blog?
 - Do you need to give credit to the pattern designer when putting your quilt in a Show?
 - Can you sell quilts made from a pattern? What if you are raffling it for a charitable purpose?
- What should Quilt Show organizers know/do about copyright?

For answers, see this CQA article by Kathleen Bissett:

<http://www.canadianquilter.com/members/publications.php> or visit her website at

<http://www.kathleenbissett.com> and look under Workshops for "Copyright Article".

Canada, Eh? – A Quilt Contest

CQA is running a fun quilt challenge contest open to all individual CQA members called "Canada, Eh?". Full details appear in the summer 2010 issue of CQA Magazine. Quilts expressing "what Canada means to me" are eligible for entry until March 1, 2011 by photo submission. Photos will appear on the CQA website and winners will be chosen by members online voting.
