

Lions Gate Quilters' Guild

November 2008

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

I expect you are all busy sewing and shopping for Christmas and holiday parties. What better thing to do when it is raining anyway? There are so many craft sales on at this time of the year to aid in acquiring unique gifts and maybe our November meeting will help you also. The sewing room sale and social in November promises to be a lot of fun. Have you reserved your table at it yet? If not, please give Dianne Ritter a call.

During the next few weeks the nominating committee will be calling you for your recommendations for people to fill the jobs coming up at the AGM in February. They will also be asking for volunteers to fill the jobs. We can't keep our Guild going without volunteers. Please give serious consideration to taking on a task. None of the jobs are onerous, including the president's. With the use of email the need for meetings has been cut way down and contacts made much easier.

The executive is in the process of drawing up the budget for 2009 to get ready for the AGM in February. If there is anything you wish to add please let us know so it can be considered at this time.

Guild meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of the month at:

St Andrews and St Stephens
corner of 27th St and Chesterfield

Next Guild meeting –Nov 25 - 7:30pm
Next Executive meeting -- Jan 5-7:00pm

It does seem a little early, but since there is no newsletter in December I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a happy and safe holiday season for you and your families.

See you on November 25th!

Rosalind

PS: Will the person who spoke to me about a sewing room of a friend being cleared out and donated to the Guild please give me a call or send me an email. We need to know how to set it up depending on the extent and type of goods.

Things to Remember:

- ⇒ Name Tag & Membership Card.
- ⇒ Coffee Mug
- ⇒ Library Books and fines
- ⇒ Money for 50/50 draw and workshops

Important Notice: This newsletter is for the sole use of the members of the Lions Gate Quilters' Guild. Reproduction of any items, in whole or part, is strictly prohibited. From the Executive of the Lions Gate Quilters' Guild.

SPRING RETREAT

Marg Marlow – Spring Retreat Coordinator

Mark your calendars!

Our Spring Retreat will be held at 'Edenvale Retreat Centre which is located on 38 acres in the beautiful Fraser Valley. www.edenvaleretreat.ca.

A gentle walking trail, delicious home-cooked meals, a spacious sewing room, spotless bedrooms to share, (private is also available), not to mention the peace and tranquility that greets you. What more could you ask for! Except of course all your friends joining you for this fun get away weekend!

Each registrant will have a table to themselves, and we will also have a cutting table set up.

Meals included are Dinner Friday, 3 meals Saturday, and breakfast and lunch on Sunday, or a light breakfast and a Brunch.

COST: $250.00 (add $22 if you would like a private room)
Registration begins at our Jan. 27, 2009 meeting. $100 deposit required at that time, with full payment at our Feb. 24, 2009 meeting.

CHECK-IN TIME: 3:00 p.m Friday

CHECK-OUT TIME: 3:00 p.m. Sunday (we must check out of the bedrooms by 11:00 a.m. as they have another group arriving at 5:00 p.m.)

Minimum registrants is 16, maximum is 20 - 22

CALLING FOR VOLUNTEERS

FALL SEMINAR 2009

The FALL SEMINAR 2009 committee are looking for volunteers to help in many different areas. The first one being the Registration for workshops at our February 2009 General meeting. Just ask a volunteer if they had fun, and I'll bet you will get a positive response.

Signup sheets will be available at the November 25 general meeting, at the Workshop table.

MEMBERSHIP

Vicki Digby—Membership Coordinator

The Guild currently has 192 members. The Oct. meeting had 6 guests, some of whom are planning to join our Guild in 2009.

November is our last meeting of the year; it is time to think of renewal for 2009. Look for your renewal form on the last page of the January newsletter. You can also log-on to the Guild's website and download a printable copy of the new renewal form and mail it in to the Guild's mailbox, the address is on the form. Since the Guild relies on the membership dues for its operating budget, please plan to take time in January to complete your renewal by Feb. 1, 2009. Due to the change in venue for our meetings and the success of e-mailing our newsletter, the cost of renewal will remain at $45.00.

Cheers,
Vicki Digby

PROGRAM

Dianne Ritter – Program Coordinator

The Program for November is our annual

Sewing Room Sale

What is it? – your chance to give someone else the opportunity to put those items that have been languishing in your sewing room (or other fabric stashing area) to good use.

How do I participate? – reserve a table by e-mailing me at programs@lionsgatequiltersguild.com or giving me a call NO LATER THAN THE 19th of November. You will find my number on your phone list.

What can I sell? – Items of a sewing room nature – fabric, notions, books, magazines, buttons, embellishments, sewing tools etc. &/or Items that you have crafted – dolls, jewelry, knitting, decorations etc etc.

What do I need to bring? – 1) your items for sale. 2) a float for making change. 3) a cloth large enough to cover your table prior to the sale.

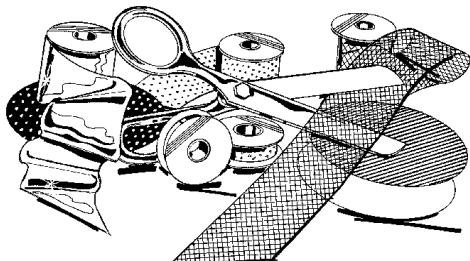

What time do I need to be there? – 6:30 so you have time to set up and have your tables covered by 7 PM.

When does the sale take place? – after the business portion of the meeting and show and tell are complete and the meeting has been adjourned.

If you are shopping – bring $$$$$$ in the form of cash or cheque and please don't arrive at the meeting prior to 7PM so there is adequate time for people to set up their tables.

See you all on the 25th!

Dianne Ritter

So go visit the library and see what they come up with.

Darlene Towsley

Sadly, Darlene Towsley passed away peacefully on Saturday November 8 at the Mission Hospice. Darlene was a long time member of the guild, and those of us who knew her will remember her long and courageous battle with cancer, and her optimism and good humor throughout. Darlene was given six months to live about 15 – 20 years ago, and definitely beat the odds! Several years ago she taught us how to make sparkly string angels at a Christmas workshop – I'll think of her every year when I hang mine on my tree.

COMMUNITY QUILTS*Edna Simpson- Community Quilts Coordinator*

Mark your calendar for the community quilt workshop days on Feb. 13 & 14 (Friday & Saturday) which is a little earlier than usual. Please try to finish the quilts you already have and bring them there or to the February meeting.

After 16 years at Highlands United Church and because of renovations taking place there, we have found a new venue at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church which is on the north side of the Upper Levels Highway between Westview & Capilano Road.

Several people have asked me to reprint the quilt sizes we prefer to have so

Baby	36 x 40
Crib/ Lap	42 x 54
Twin	54 x 72

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

It's that time again when we must start thinking about elections which are coming up in February 2009. The positions that will be open are listed below (for more detailed description of each position, please refer to your LGQG By-Laws.

President: This person is responsible for managing the Guild. The President prepares agendas for and presides at Directors' and General meetings, receives communications from members and the public, and prepares a report for each issue of the newsletter.

Vice-President: This person assumes the duties of the President in her/his absence.

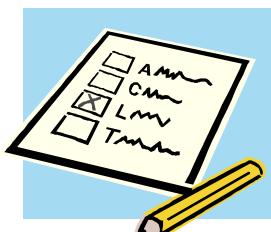

Secretary: This person is responsible for keeping minutes of all meetings. She/he also prepares correspondence and notices according to the Directors' instructions.

Membership Coordinator: This person collects dues, provides information to new members and maintains the membership list.

Member-At-Large: The two Members-at-large (one is elected each year) provide another communication channel to the executive. Responsibilities include greeting people at the door for meetings and coordinating "show and tell".

Please consider letting your name stand for one of these positions. The nominating Committee will be phoning members over the next month --if you already know the position you would like to run for, or if you have a friend you would like to nominate (with her/his permission of course), please call me or Suzanne.

GUILD EVENTS PHOTOS WANTED

GUILD ARCHIVIST

As Guild Archivist, I'm responsible for keeping general photos and newspaper clippings about the Guild in a photograph album. I am asking anyone who has prints of photos they have taken at Guild events (workshops, retreats, meetings, etc.) if they would be willing to donate them for the album. If you do, please put all the relative information about the photo (approximate date, type of event, etc.) and your name on the back. At the monthly Guild meetings you can leave your donations of photos at the library with Nancy Sunderland and I shall pick them up from there. If you have any questions you can call me at 604-926-8402.

Thank you. Elizabeth Marshall

FALL SEMINAR 2009

FALL SEMINAR '09 NEWS MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Plans are underway for a great Fall Seminar so mark your calendars. We will kick off with an evening presentation on Sept 30, followed by 4 days of workshops, October 1 - 4. Fall Seminar '09 will attempt to offer something for everyone, with content spanning the traditional to contemporary and encompassing all skill levels. Instructors will include some of our very own local talent along with some imported special guests. Offerings will include everything from half day workshops to a full 4 day seminar.

Details of the workshops will be published in future newsletters so you can research the presenters and plan ahead.

Of course there will be a quilt challenge too! Registration will begin at the February meeting so make sure your membership is up to date.

WORKSHOPS—OTHER GUILDS

There is one spot available in the Squamish Valley Quilters Guild Feb. 6 - 8th, 2009 Spring Retreat. It is being held at PARADISE VALLEY in Squamish. The cost is approx. $285 - $305. Please contact Phyllis Carter prcarter@telus.net if you are interested.

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

Marg Marlow—Workshop Coordinator

'One Classy Cabin', by Pippa Moore

This old time favourite is given a new sophistication in the off-centre format of African fabrics juxtaposed with neutrals. Or create your version with dark scraps and light. Begin construction on either version of the eye-catching quilt in class. Finishing techniques will be discussed. www.pippamoore.ca
