June 2018

Special Quilt Show Edition! Watch your inbox!

Presidents' Message

What a busy month June is and we're only in the middle of it! At the beginning of the month we had Quilt Canada 2018 at the Vancouver Convention Centre. I hope many of you had a chance to go and see the show – I spent three days there and I have the credit card receipts to prove it. It was really great to see some of our local quilters represented by their quilts. I was also fortunate enough to go on the free Trendtex tour on the Friday. Who knew they are now digitally printing on batiks!

Then came our show and, boy, was it a doozie! I am continually blown away by the beautiful quilts produced by our guild members. There is a lot of talent in our guild and the workmanship in the quilts displayed was truly inspiring. I loved the variety of colours and patterns and the interesting stories behind each quilt. The challenge quilts were superb and all quite different. The boutique was overflowing on Friday morning and seemed to diminish at a quick pace. Such wonderful, well-crafted items were for sale. The raffle quilt, tea room, community quilts, merchant's mall, education – there was so much to see and do. The exhibit by the Fiber Arts Guild was a beautiful addition. Many thanks to the quilt show committee and the dedicated guild volunteers for such an amazing show!

At our June 26th meeting we will take some time to reflect on a show well done and hopefully get to admire some of the ribbon winning quilts again. (Read the rest of the newsletter for more details.) Bring some extra cash for our members' Fabric Sale, and your Summer schedule so you can sign up for Summer quilting events around the North Shore. Our Programs committee has planned some fun activities and some great food, so don't miss out.

Please remember to return your library books so the inventory can be done in the summer. Also, return the Quilt Show lawn signs (metal frames and white plastic covers) at the June meeting.

See you all on June 26th.

Community Quilts: What you told us...

Thanks for your feedback on our survey, I have some results. Mostly, there's no real consensus, and you're all over the board! However a few themes emerged.

1. You want to know who is receiving our quilts. Brenda just dropped some off this week at Lions Gate Hospital Cancer Ward and Evergreen House. We will keep you posted on further deliveries.
2. You like kits. But you like both brighter colours and more neutral colours.
3. Some like to piece only the top, some like to just quilt.
4. Many indicated that batting should be included with kits, as well as binding. A complete kit.
5. Many indicated that they would like to have the kits signed out, not the honour system.

So as you can see the results are not conclusive. I think we will try to make a few more kits that vary so they can hit some of this criteria.

Maybe we can try speed dating? Give me your name and your preferred kit type, and we can match you up?

I'll mention it again at the meeting, until then, try to feed off all the inspiration from the quilt show and make something amazing!

And don't forget we're doing our draws in June, if you've worked on a community quilt, you've been entered!!!! Good luck!

Upcoming Workshops

We still have spaces available in our two Fall Workshops.

Sign up at the meeting, or contact Helen Jorgensen or Susan Lum, Workshop Co-ordinators!

Beautiful Lines, Lovely Shapes

A two-day design workshop for patchworkers by Barb Mortell

Dates: Friday October 26 and Saturday October 27

Time: 9:30 am to 4:00 pm, ½ hour lunch

Location: TBC

Cost: $120.00

A workshop on classic composition, using line and shape to look at, and experiment with figure and ground, scale and proportion, beautiful lines and beautiful shapes. All of Barb's classes are composition classes, each with its own emphasis.

In this workshop, you'll have a good look at how line and shape play together in beautiful proportion to improve your artwork, no matter what the medium. Basic enough, but this line of study can take you deep into your own style. Have fun learning how to know when your lines and shapes are of good scale and in the right proportions. Fabrics will be free-cut, that is without the aid of rulers, and you'll learn to piece gentle curves and skinny lines among other improvisational techniques.

We will use black and white, with a blast of solid colour in the class, keeping it simple so we can really concentrate on the design aspects. Day two may include more use of colour if you like, while you learn how to engineer disparate shapes and pieces into a flat quilt top.

This is the same workshop Barb will be offering at the Textile Museum of Canada during the run of the Color Improvisations 2 exhibition there. This exhibition, curated by Nancy Crow, is making its North American debut in Toronto, Canada, May 30 – September 23, 2018.

Everybody Gets the Blues

Teacher: Carol Piercy

Date: Saturday, November 17, 2018

Time: 9:30 am to 4:00 pm

Location: St. Agnes Church, 530 East 12th, North Vancouver

Cost: $60.00

Remember summer skies with a charm-type blue quilt brightened up with wonky stars! Easy enough for beginners (as long as you know how to rotary cut and can cut an accurate square) and fun for everyone! Pre-cutting is required. I bring lots of 5" blue squares, and you are welcome to trade with me if you would like. This is a fun and social class, and you'll learn how to make wonky stars – that never lose their points. Of course you don't have to do it in blue... Christmas anyone?

What we're making

Level Two totes made in Krista's May workshop proudly on display at May's Show and Tell (left). And Colleen's tote at the end of the class (below).

☆ AND... we made a whole Quilt Show!
Watch your inbox for a show special!

On the left is belly dancer Shauna; on the right is costume-admiring Trudy Jaskela and in the middle is belly-laughing Katherine Morgan (in Katherine's words!)

You never know what sewing project people are going to bring to our COPS Days... at the May 26th COPS Day (left), Shauna Dennert was working on her belly dancing recital outfits. Yes, you read that right. They were well designed, she explained, with plenty of snaps to avoid a wardrobe malfunction! And there were two, to allow for a costume change during her show.

Day Trip to Bowen Island: Saturday, July 21 (quilter's fabric stash sale)

Sign Up at the JUNE Guild Meeting at the table where Raffle Tickets are usually sold.

On Saturday July 21, I and others who sign up at the June meeting will be enjoying a wonderful day on Bowen Island... a mini-vacation for quilters and fabric lovers!

We will be catching the 10:15 AM ferry at Horse-shoe Bay. We will be "walking on" as much as possible to keep costs down. Per person ferry cost is $10.10 (return) and vehicle cost is a minimum of $44.50 (return). There is a bus on Bowen which can take us from the ferry area to other locations, or for those who like an uphill walk, many things are within walking distance of Snug Cove where the ferry docks.

On Bowen, our day will begin with a visit to the "fabric stash sale" to see what treasures we can find. This will be followed by lunch at a local restaurant and then a chance to check out the local clothing shops, artists galleries and more. Depending on people's interests the remainder of the afternoon could be spent touring the Island, walking through a park or on the beach, or chatting over a cold beverage on a patio.

We will be trying to get on the 5:20 PM ferry returning from Bowen Island.

Don't miss out on the fun – sign up at the June Guild meeting!!

We have a whole selection of photos from the quilt show, taken by members who responded to my request for pics. So it's a selection based on what was submitted and I thank everyone who sent me pictures (keep it up... you know I'm always looking for newsletter pics!).
